4 Correct Chestnut Gelding, (f/e), by Wise Dan’s Ferry - Lily Danielle by Wolf Power (SAF). Trainer LoPresti Charles. Bred by Mort Main Street (KY).

WISE DAN away in good order, rated kindly while tracking KING KREESA from the pocket, closed the gap slightly while proceeding down the stretchback, angled of an opportunity to maneuver to the outside upon reaching the five-sixteens mark, gathering speed and doing so, prior to spinning into the lane, was called upon and took off after the leader in earnest once settled in a tight stretch, latched on with a flurry of good movement, raced on even terms before pocking a head past a stubborn rival in the vicinity of the sixteenth mark, had the rider sneak a couple of peaks behind him then kicked away, crossing the finish line under a brisk hand drive. KING KREESA broke alertly and was almost instantaneously in control, was guided over to the rail, cut the pace, rated along and facing some but light pressure felt the presence of the winner approaching the quarter pole and was soon let out, had the top one draw alongside after completing the run through the furlong grounds, dug in stubbornly only to yield nonetheless with about a sixteenth remaining, displayed good courage to the end to be second best.

LEA broke in a couple of steps at the start, race three wide on both turns, unleashed an abbreviated run from the three-eights pole, proved no match for the top two. MR. COMMONS quick tucked along the rail after the start, rode it, pipping along until the top of the second turn, got tipped outward and then asked for some run by the five-sixteens pole, commenced the stretch four wide, made no headway.

WILLYCONKER (IRE) unhurried along the outside, was sent inward nearing the end of the stretch, began to save ground until the quarter pole, was under urging angling back to the outside for the drive home, came up empty. SKYRING attended the runner up from the two path doing so under some coaxing, tired steadily before completing three-quarters.
