Chestnut Filly, (Feb), by Pure Prize - Chelsea Green by Key to the Mint. Trainer McPeek G. Kenneth. Bred by Royal Oak Farm, LLC (KY).

PURE FUN was taken back early, angled in a bit and allowed to settle at the rear while racing unencumbered in about the three path, was unhurried for much of the run down the backstretch, moved four wide around the far turn to reach contention by the top of the lane, received steady left-handed urging in upper stretch, struck the lead inside the final eighth and edged clear under right-handed pressure to ensure she kept to task late. OSCAR PARTY raced four wide in the last flight of horses around the first turn, moved up to be within striking distance of the leaders down the backstretch, advanced three wide in a bid for the lead on the far turn, weakened in the lane when confronted by the eventual winner but gamely held onto place. FIFTYSHADESOFHAY pressed the pace two wide in the opening quarter, dispatched the inside rival shortly thereafter and dictated the pace under some pressure from outside, seemingly repulsed a bid on the far turn, had a clear lead briefly at the top of the lane before yielding late. PLENTY O'TOOLE chased the leaders two wide throughout, lacked the necessary late bid to improve position but managed to hold onto fourth. SEANEEN GIRL chased the leaders three wide, offered no late bid but moved up a placing in the lane. WILD ABOUT IRENE stalked the pace in the early going, drew closer down the backstretch to offer moderate pace pressure three wide, weakened in the lane. RUN FORESTRY RUN showed brief speed along the inside, gave way and was eased.
