Gray or Roan Colt, (Mar), by Scat Daddy - Great Venue by Unbridled's Song. Trainer John P. Terranova, II. Bred by Rustlewood Farm, Inc. (FL).

EL KABEIR alternated between the inside and the two path for the opening six furlongs, began to scurry into contention after spinning onto the backstretch, made additional progress during the run around the far turn as the tempo slowed down noticeably, commenced to get angled outward heading for the top of the lane, completed the maneuver in the four path, cemented himself to the front during the next furlong, lugged in towards the rail after some right handed stick work, remained comfortably in the clear. TIZ SHEA D broke inward, made light but sustained contact for a few strides with LIEUTENANT COLONEL. got placed along the rail before reaching the end of the homestretch, patiently tracked the front runners, was forced to be kept on hold, awaiting suitable options approaching the quarter pole, gained enough clearance along the inside corridor after settling into upper stretch and launched a rally. hesitated before slipping by another around the eighth pole. dug in willingly in the late stages to preserve the place. CLASSY CLASS bobbed after appearing to scape the left side of the starting gate, took up position two wide in midpack, was patiently handled for the initial six furlongs, entered the stretch caught behind rivals, managed to gain clear sailing with slightly under a furlong to go, closed in well despite drifting out in the final stages, missed out on place honors. TOASTING MASTER vied to maintain control from slightly off the inside, yielded to the winner shortly after entering the lane, weakened in the last eighth. TENCENDUR raced towards the three path on both turns, lacked the needed late response. DONTBETWITHBRUNO reserved in the two path, was caught behind rivals during the initial portion of the stretch drive, altered course to be about seven wide in two stages, made no impact. UNINFLUENCED raced two to three wide on the far turn, fanned into the six path heading for the three-sixteenths pole, lacked the needed response. BLAME JIM prompted the issue from near the two path, was set down challenging intensely as the field made its way into the stretch, steadied for a stride when briefly in tight halfway through the furlong grounds, tipped further to the outside, had no offering left. COMBAT DIVER took the inside route, paused in hand cutting the corner into the stretch, failed to fire when asked to a short time later. LIEUTENANT COLONEL leaned upon by TIZ SHEA D after the field was sent on its way, got carried in a couple of paths, travelled three wide on the clubhouse turn, remained at a considerable distance from off the rail thereafter, swung out in the direction of the seven path for racing clearance heading home, had little left to offer and retreated.
